

2005 ANNUAL REPORT

PREVENT CHILD ABUSE NEW YORK

Serving our state with a single mission: to prevent child abuse in all its forms. Prevent Child Abuse New York provides resources for families, individuals and organizations; increases understanding about how to stop child abuse; and fosters a statewide network committed to prevention, through its programs and services. Because all children should live in families that love, nurture, and protect them.

PREVENTION INFORMATION RESOURCE CENTER & PARENT HELPLINE

Toll-free. 24-hour help for families and the professionals who serve them, in English and Spanish.

HEALTHY FAMILIES NEW YORK

Stopping child abuse before it starts through voluntary home visiting for at-risk parents of children ages birth to five.

PUBLIC EDUCATION

Involving citizens in preventing child abuse and neglect through awareness campaigns, the media, presentations, and the Internet.

ANNUAL NEW YORK STATE CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION CONFERENCE

Three days of skills building for professionals and volunteers, judged outstanding by 97 percent of participants.

LEGISLATIVE ADVOCACY

For laws to protect children and prevent their abuse, and for funding for child abuse prevention programs.

PARTNERSHIPS FOR PARENTS

Promoting parenting education and support in New York City.

PREVENTION PLANNING

In partnership with the Children & Family Trust Fund Strategic Planning Group and the Healthy Families New York Home Visiting Council.
